

Anchor Cottage

Anchor Cottage is a three bedroom, traditional cottage located down a loke just a stones throw from The Quay in the heart of Blakeney. This cottage has many interesting, original features and is already a huge hit with future guests. Its proximity to The Quay and all of the amenities that this renowned North Norfolk village has to offer make its location hard to beat. Its stylish, newly renovated interior gives it a real cosy, homely feel, just perfect for families looking for a quiet hideaway on the this most wonderful stretch of coastline.

This charming cottage has been beautifully restored and decorated to a very high standard with luxurious furnishings, it champions the country home style; timeless and relaxed. This property is much loved, with lots of beautiful touches including books throughout the property and a map of Blakeney and surrounding areas as a statement wallpaper in the dining room. Sympathetically decorated to the highest of standards this cottage has heaps of character and style.

As you enter the property, you come to the large, open plan hallway which leads through to the sitting room. This living area has been beautiful decorated with stylish sofas and arm chairs and plenty of photographs on the walls. Complete with Sony Freeview Tv, DVD and Apple TV, log burner, books and board games, perfect for a cosy evening in as a family. This living area really does feel like a home-away-from-home!

From the hallway you also enter the dining room, with a wooden table and chairs, which adds to the tasteful decor seen throughout this cottage. This dining room is a also lovely space to sit and while the time away with family, with the characterful antlers and original fire place adding the perfect finishing touches for a relaxed and stylish environment.

From the dining area, you come to the well-equipped kitchen including a toaster, kettle, oven, fridge, microwave and Nespresso machine. This kitchen contains everything you could need to whip up your favourite gastronomic delights! You will find the staircase runs up from the kitchen and is a typical staircase for cottages of this design so is quite steep and therefore not suitable for anyone with mobility issues.

Upstairs you will find the master bedroom, with a kingsize bed, large sash window which makes the room open and airy and lovely wooden floorboards and rugs for a modern but comfy feel. All bedrooms in this property have bedside tables and wall-hung lamps which hold a lovely ambience and are ideal for a spot of quiet bed-time reading.

The second bedroom in this cottage has a super king-size zip & link bed that can be split in to twins on request (please give at least 2 weeks notice). There is also a twin bedroom in this property. This property allows versatility to guests, whether you are coming as a family of up to six or as a group of six in couples/friends.

The family bathroom is beautifully finished with a good sized tub with central tap and adjacent to this bathroom is a shower room, perfect for families who require multiple bathrooms to wash away a sandy day at the beach!

As a result, this cottage is going to be extremely popular as it is extremely spacious for a cottage in Blakeney and offers a delightful bolthole for families to escape to the North Norfolk Coast.

* Please note, coffee pods for the Nespresso Machine are NOT provided at the property.
