

The Crows Nest

The Crows nest is a stylish apartment in a superb location next to The Quay in the heart of Blakeney village with lovely views.

This super coastal apartment is situated literally a stone's throw from beautiful Blakeney Quay and a short stroll to all village amenities. The Guildhall has apartments on three levels with The Crows having good views from its top floor position across to the Georgian granary opposite and down to the Quay and Salt marshes beyond.

The Crows Nest has an amazing light and bright open plan living area. Three huge Velux windows are set into the sloped roof on one side, opening almost to floor level, giving the room a very spacious feel. The delightful owners have decorated the sitting area in a jaunty nautical style with comfy red sofas and foot stool and coastal styled cushions. For quiet evenings in there is a TV with DVD built in with freeview and free wifi.

Between the sitting area and the kitchen is a round glass dining table with wicker chairs seating four. The pretty kitchen is fitted with cream painted units below a wood work surface and includes an electric oven and halogen hob, freestanding fridge, small dishwasher and all the usual accessories; microwave, toaster, kettle etc. Continuing the colour scheme are jolly Cath Kidson Crockery and mugs and other red colour accents.

The double bedroom has the most wonderful views over ancient Mariners Hill in Blakeney and beyond to the Salt Marshes at Cley. The single bedroom shares the same view over the roof tops to the salt marshes beyond and the caring owners have kindly positioned a 'Sky watcher' telescope to enjoy the views both night and day.

The two bedrooms share the wonderful, newly installed shower room with wc, washbasin and superb rain style shower head and separate handle attachment.

The flat is heated by invisible warm air heating with controls in every room and the bathroom has an electric heated towel rail making the Crows Nest a cosy winter retreat for couples as well as a great summer holiday base for a small family.

There is a pull out bed underneath the single bed which can be set up separately, and to the same height as the single bed. Erecting it blocks the wardrobe so we suggest only utilising the extra single bed for weekend bookings, not full week bookings.
